Mississippi Valley Division

Presentation at the

Inland Waterways Conference

by

MG Phillip R. Anderson

Commander, Mississippi Valley Division
President, Mississippi River Commission

March 21, 2000

Listening Sessions

- At Least One in Each Major Subordinate Command
- National Session in Washington, D.C.
- National Professional Facilitator
- Corps Listens

US Army Corps of Engineers
Mississippi Valley Division

www.wrsc.usace.army.mil/iwr/waterchallenges

Marine Transportation Syste

Do you want a strong marine transportation system that can accommodate increased demands?

US Army Corps of Engineers
Mississippi Valley Division

www.wrsc.usace.army.mil/iwr/waterchallenges

Flood Control

Do you want to reduce flooding impacts on people, property, and livelihoods?

US Army Corps of Engineers
Mississippi Valley Division

www.wrsc.usace.army.mil/iwr/waterchallenges

Environmental Restoration

Do you want a healthy natural environment for the benefit of humans, plants, and animals?

US Army Corps of Engineers
Mississippi Valley Division

www.wrsc.usace.army.mil/iwr/waterchallenges

Water Supply Revitalization

Do you want sufficient clean water in our communities?

US Army Corps of Engineers
Mississippi Valley Division

www.wrsc.usace.army.mil/iwr/waterchallenges

Aging Infrastructure

Do you want water infrastructure that performs to expectations?

US Army Corps of Engineers
Mississippi Valley Division

www.wrsc.usace.army.mil/iwr/waterchallenges

Emergency Response

Do you want quick and effective emergency response to natural disasters?

US Army Corps of Engineers
Mississippi Valley Division

www.wrsc.usace.army.mil/iwr/waterchallenges

Partnering Conference

June 15-17
Regal Riverfront Hotel

US Army Corps of Engineers
Mississippi Valley Division

www.wrsc.usace.army.mil/iwr/waterchallenges